Dilemmas of European Intervention through Aid in Palestine/Israel

29 May 2013 ■ 6-8 pm ■ Lecture Room G
Innestraße 22, 14195 Berlin (U Thielplatz)

Humanitarian, military and financial aid has become a defining feature of the economy of Israel/Palestine. The history of the formulation of aid policies towards this area, Israel's responses to this, and its own dependency on it teaches much about the contradictions in the peace process. Shir Hever's talk and the subsequent discussion with Fanny-Michaela Reisin will focus on the dilemmas created by European aid policies which are among the reasons for the current political impasse.

Shir Hever is an economist, a PhD student at FU Berlin, and a member of the Alternative Information Center, a joint Palestinian-Israeli organization.

Fanny-Michaela Reisin is the president of the Internationale Liga für Menschenrechte (Berlin) and co-founder of the Jüdische Stimme für gerechten Frieden in Nahost e.V.
